HOH and HOM India Report on Partnership!

Vijay and Sukanya Singapogu are the founders of Hope Outreach Ministries. Spurred by a vision from God, they are providing much-needed training for indigenous leaders through Hope Bible Training Institute.

If you are near any of the locations from Nov. 6 through Nov. 19 make sure you get to hear exciting, first-hand accounts of God's work in India. You will be encouraged and your mission vision will be expanded!

THE PRESIDENT'S VIEW

May I Ask a Favor?

On the back page of this newsletter you will read a letter by a loyal, long-term HOPE Partner. I hope it will encourage you, whether you've been with us a long time or are a new partner in mission!

I also hope it will inspire your own reflection on how and why you became a valued member of our HOPE Family.

Heralds of Hope, like every other Gospel ministry, is all about people. There are hundreds of people, like you, whose fervent prayers and faithful giving make ministry possible. Then, there is our Staff of 4 full-time and 2 part-time workers who handle the mechanics of ministry, producing the radio programs, processing Bible and literature requests and sharing Biblical counsel. And there are millions, saved and unsaved, who are served by our partnership.

Every day, people in North America and other parts of the world are able to download Bible teaching programs, tune in to a radio broadcast, or receive a Bible or Christian literature. Many of these people write, e-mail, or leave a message on Facebook to say "thank you." Those expressions of thanks really belong to you.

As we age, change is an inevitable part of our lives. Some single people among our HOPE Family marry and begin families. Their discretionary funds decrease as they take on that responsibility.

Others move from raising a family to being "empty-nesters," increasing the income available for giving. Many on the upper end of the age spectrum, who contributed generously for years, see their resources decreasing due to health issues and the costs of retirement. While they can no longer give as they once did, they are among the most faithful in prayer!

How does God want to use your story to encourage someone else? You can find out how by sharing that story with our HOPE Family. So please do me a favor and let me hear from you today.

Send your story to me at jmh@heraldsofhope.org or mail to PO Box 3 Breezewood, PA 15533. I'll be watching the mail! THANKS.

Sincerely in HOPE of the Gospel,

J. Mark Horst, President

Stewardship

Bible & Literature

We have been receiving hundreds of Bible and literature requests each month from Malawi, Africa. Following is a note from Pastor Thom Issa:

"Thanks for the carton of books you sent. God bless you. Here are 16 names of people who want Bibles. There are more who need them."

This month we also purchased 180 gift/award Bibles for Ethiopia requests costing $655. Any amount towards the $4 gift/award Bible, $8 Hope Bible, or $77.95 shipping cost for a case of 16 Bibles to Malawi, would help make an eternal difference in the life of a seeker in Africa.

Special THANKS to the Amish Bible Fund for the $1,170 to ship 15 cases of Bibles to Malawi. The Living Hope Evangelical Church VBS offering of $3,138 was a real help and encouragement too.

You can also invest in our twice weekly Bible teaching broadcast in Arabic. The cost for translation, production, airing and follow-up for these broadcasts in Baghdad, Iraq, is $185 a week or $2,405 per quarter. Are you or your church willing to help with this?

Adding to the urgency of this need is the recent request for the Arabic broadcast to air by shortwave into Egypt, Jordan, Israel, and Syria. The current political unrest, violence, and severe persecution of Christians in these countries is well known. What a GREAT opportunity for only $49 per week! Who is willing to make this eternal investment?

Prayerfully,

Bob Kauffman

A HOPE Partner's Story

Dear Friends,

When I saw the tract, The Choice Is Yours, mentioned in the prayer guide, I assumed it was a typical little tract. It is that, but much more. I believe a lost person would be more apt to read it instead of tossing it aside as many do.

I have some lost kinfolks and close friends that I have a burden for. I find it more difficult to witness to these than to perfect strangers. It shouldn't be that way, but it is; so my aim is to include a challenging tract along with various greeting cards, hoping to prompt some kind of response. Often, a tract will note at the end who may be contacted for more information. There, I list my name, hoping they will come to me, as I am not able to go to them. I am well into my 96th year with my left leg amputated (I have a prosthesis), and a damaged right knee, so my mobility is limited to a power chair from the Scooter Store.

Also, I feel the amount I sent [for the tracts] was not enough, so am sending [more] along with my monthly offering. From time to time I receive gifts. When I do, I always share most of it with HOH. That is why my offerings vary at times. I wish I could give more for the great work you are doing, but I live on a Social Security check.

I have known Brother Yoder from way back. For a few years before I lost my leg, I served with him on the Sword and Trumpet Board. He and Isabelle once had a meal with us at our home.

Years ago, my wife and I visited the headquarters at Breezewood at the time when the recording of LPs was being discontinued. I believe that at that time the radio ministry was limited to the USA, maybe Canada. The Lord is surely blessing the ministry.

When I read the reports you send out, I am amazed at how Heralds of Hope has grown. I pray that more will catch the vision and get on board. I pray daily for you and that many more will faithfully lend their support.

Joseph Omondi's Testimony

What's Inside: (1 CD or printed Transcript)

Growing up in a non-Christian home with an alcoholic father, Joseph Omondi soon learned how to fend for himself. As a teenager, his pursuit of survival took him to Nairobi, the Kenyan capital. Here, he came into contact with some door-to-door evangelists. Find out how his life took a dramatic change and how God is using him in Kenya today!
